Paine's Celery Compound After the Failures of Physicians, Special Medicines and Electric Battery, Banishes Pain and Tortures and Restores Health.

In the ranks of sick, tortured and diseased sufferers, many men and women have become hopeless because of the failures of physicians and their mediciner.

We would have all such dejected and despairing mortals take comfort this very We would impress upon them the at the eleventh hour. Paine's Celery Compound accomplishes its life-saving work for the old and young when all other medical treatment falls. A multitude of people have furnished strong and incontrovertible tes timony in support of the statements that "Paine's Celery Compound makes sick peoplb well." Mr. John W. Boyd of Mishawaka, Ind., refers to his own case as fol-

"Last winter I was taken down with very severe attack of nervous and muscular rheumatism, so bad that I could not lie down, sit up or stand without the most excruciating pain. I was all the time under the care of two of the best physicians of the place, but I did not improve. I took different rheumatic cures and used an electile battery a half hour each day for ten days without any relief. Officials Assert That Nothing Was "Boss" Kerens Out of a Job-Candidates Campaigning as If They Had a Chance to Carry Election.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

Joplin, Ma., July 14.—Republicans will neet here to-morrow to nominate three candidates for the Supreme bench. According to the programme arranged to-night the successful three will be Henry Lamm Sedalla, Edward Highes of Lancaster, and Moses Whybark of Marble Hill, al! of whom have been carrying on an active can They are here, and, unless something unforeseen occurs, they have the sitction so well in hand that other candi dates, who are not on the slate, have praccally given up the fight.

Politics predominate, Though State nirman Akins has organization matters well at hand, the candidates are waging an obi-time campaign, discouraged as they are as to results in the general election. Whybark has headquarters with flaring bannet a block from the Keystone, where most of the delegates are stationed. Henry Lamm has two rooms in the Keystone, where he receives visitors. Highee's friends in the First and Second Congressional districts have held a caucus and appointed a "steering committee," which will arrange all

cessary trades. KANSAS CITY CANDIDATES

KNIFING EACH OTHER. Three candidates from Kansas City, San-ford B. Ladd, Samuel W. Moore and Richard H. Fields, are "knifing" each other so hard and vigorously that the Jackson County delegates predict none of them will dare before the convention. Said Senator Clarke of Kansas City this evening: "We have until midnight to get together. The caucus which we held this afternoon adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning, when a final effort will be made to unite on one man. It will then be too late to do anything. The fellows in charge of things told us that, unless we The Presbytery of St. Louis held its July acted as a unit before midnight, we could ot break the state." Another piece of politics, showing the Republican character of the proceedings, was made this afternoon to beat Judge James J. Neville of Springfield for the Circuit Court of Appeals nomination. Apparently he has been unopposed until this afternoon, when friends of N. A. Mozely of Bloomfield proposed to the Whybark following that they enter into a deal to throw Neville for Mozely, thus clearing the track for Whybark for a Supreme Court nomination. It is said that the friends of Whybark refused to "dicker." Delegates friendly to Whybark are getting out their knives for Mozely, on account of his supposed treach-

AKINS WINNING OUT

OVER OLD MAN KERENS. A meeting of the State Central Committee was held this evening. There was "nothing doing" for Kerens. Akins is supposed to have about thirty of the forty-two members. Kerens attended the session, but that was the only way in which he was felt. The State chalrman had his progranged, and carried it through in quick order, Otto Stifel of St. Louis was elected to succeed Colonel D. P. Dyer, as predicted in

The Republic. Akins was empowered to name five members of an Executive Committee. Gustavus A. Finkelnburg of St. Louis was made vice chairman at Akins's request. In order to rub salt on the National Committeeman he was made a member of the Finance Committee, the other members being Akins and his Executive Committee. It will now be up to the National Committeeman to "produce" some of his fabled "sacrifices for the party. As a further concession to Akins the Eleecutive Committee was given power to name the secretary of the State Commit-

It is said that A. F. Shriner, the present secretary, will be reappointed despite objections to Federal office holders occupying party positions. Mr. Akins insists that as Mr. Shriner is not under the civil service there can be no objection to the proposed appointment. Charley Reeves of Humansville and E. S. Austin of St. Louis are mentioned as possible appointees for assistants to Mr. Shriner. It is said that Mr. Shriner will serve for glory, while his assistant will get the salary.

REPUBLICANS WANT TO PUSH CAMPAIGN.

Among the matters discussed by the State Committee was the best way in which to push the campaign, especially how to reduce the school fund sophistries to readable material.

Ben F. Russell was named as temporary secretary of to-morrow's convention by the State Committee. This is another pleasant reminder to Kerens that he is not in Jefferson City. After the election of present committee, Mr. Russell remarked that when any one stepped on a monkey's tail he can expect to be bitten," referring to the National Committeeman's strenuous efforts to tie the hands of Akins.

Russell was mentioned for chairman of the Jefferson City Convention, but Congressman Bartholdt was led to the slaughter instead. Simeon Harris of St. Louis. secretary of the Twenty-second Ward Re-publican League Club, will be temporary secretary of the convention. It is probable that the temporary organization will be made permanent. Another slap which was taken at the Kerens faction by Akins was the fixing of the temporary roll of the con-vention by the State Committee.

SIX CONTESTS FROM ST. LOUIS.

It will be in accordance with the report of the Credentials Committee of Jefferson City convention. As full contesting dele gations will be on hand from six St. Louis wards, there may be a warm time to-mor-row. Five of the State Committeemen voted against the Akins programme. They were: Dickey of Kansas City, Kaibfeld, Starkloff, Lloyd and Shawacker of St. Louis. If Akins has full control of the convention there may be no Credentials Committee. Clinton A. Welch of the St. Louis Repub-Rean Club announced to-night that if Ker-ens's sot gay he would try to go "down the line" in all of the six wards and unseat every Kerens man, Delegates are gossiping about an invitation which has been extended to United States Senator Burton of Kansas to speak here to-morrow. In view of his break with the President, he is considered something off a "hot brick" in political circles. State Chairman Akins admitted that while in Washington he had asked Burton to "drop

It is said that Burton will not be requested to defend his reciprocity record. About one-half of the delegates are in the city to night. The Reception Committee of Joplin has been more than hospitable in making the visitors have a pleasant time. This afternoon large numbers were taken in tally-hos and carriages to the mines and

NO TROUBLE TO

FIND LODGINGS. Delegates are having absolutely no trouble in finding lodgings. Very few private houses are being brought into requisition, owing to the large number of hotels. The citizens are proud of the honor which has been extended to them in holding the convention here, and are leaving nothing undone to make things pleasant.

Several district caucuses will be held tomorrow morning. The Fifth District prom-

James M. Johnson of St. Joseph is looking over the field, but has not decided whether he has any business to try his hand as a "slate-buster," St. Joseph and Kansas City could hurt Highee's chances, even though he has seventy-six delegates fixed for trading purposes.

The convention probably will be called to order about Il o'clock. Delegates hope to get away by dark if the work can be finished by that time. The convention will be held in a large tent. The nominations probably will be made one at a time, owing to the small number of active candidates. Said a close friend of State Chairman Akins at midnight:

"Lamm, Highee and Whybark can't be beaten. Their steering committees have agreed together and will nominate the three men. It took neat trading, but the deal has been made."

Lamm represents the southwest, Highee the northeast and Whybark the southest. P. E. BURTON.

RHODES CLAY'S BODY SECRETLY EXHUMED.

Coroner's Post-Mortem Examination at the Grave Side Revealed a Third Wound.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Mexico, Mo., July 14-A secret postnortem examination of the body of Rhodes Clay was held at the graveside in the cemetery here at midnight Saturday. In the darkness the earth was once more shoveled away, the carket reopened and the body examined to determine whether a pistol bullet had entered the back. The embalmers of the body remembered to have seen an abrasion on one of the muscles of the back, below the shoulder blade. This was unaccounted for in the medical testimony at the Coroner's inquest Saturday afternoon, and representatives of the Clay family demanded that the matter be investigated. Five physicians, besides Coroner Bridgeford, were present. They were C. T. Varnon, J. E. Hutton, W. W. MacFarlane, W. E. Crawford and J. R. Crawford. In attendance were also Colonel

R. D. Rogers, legal adviser to the Coroner, A Third Wound Discovered. A third wound-two only had been recorded-was located, Doctor MacFarlane, on

Green Clay, father of the dead man, and the stand at the inquest this morning, said of this third wound: "It was superficial and on the right side of the back below the shoulder. The wound was as wide as my finger and oval-shaped at the ends. I think it a gunshot wound, but could not tell from which direction the shot was fired." George Robertson, the attorney who will have charge of the defense, states that the existence of such a wound is immaterial. "It is a well-known fact that throughout the conflict between the men," said he, "their positions were not such that Barnes could have shot Clay from behind. Such a wound could easily have been inflicted if the ball had grazed Clay as he was standing sidewise, yet with his face toward Barnes."

Attorney Orear, one of the lawyers connected with the prosecution, contends that the wound has a bearing on the case. He claims that the evidence will show such an injury could have been inflicted only by the first shots fired by Barnes and while Clay was looking away from him.

Inquest Is Concluded. The inquest was ended to-day with the expected verdict to the effect that death was due to pistol shots fired by Clarence Barnes. The most important testimony was given by A. J. Winscott, a local insurance man. He saw the fight from its beginning and said Barnes fired the first shot. He said also that from the time the men came into collision in the Post Office, Barnes seemed to be backing away, and that when in the street just outside the Post Office Barnes motioned with his

The great popularity of Peruna as a catarrh remedy has tempted many recopie to initiate Peruna. A great many so-called catarrh remedies and catarrhal tonics are to be found in many drug steres. These remedies can be produced by the druggist much chapper than Peruna. Peruna can only be obtained at a uniform price, and no druggist can get it a cent chapper. The man's shirt, underwear and socks are new. The hat has evidently been worn two or three months. The shees are new, and the coat, trousers and vest, of medium quality, are but little worn. No marks of hatter or clothier were found, and the police could find no indication that they had been torn cut. Not a cent was in the dead man's
